News from Civitan

Greetings, a little Civitan Information to share. The Ledges Civitan Club is starting to grow and we have a few ideas and plans in the works. We'll have a float for the "Night Lights" Christmas Parade in Grand Ledge December 5th. The parade starts at 7:00 but we need to line up by 6:00. Laurie Bissinger has some candy she will bring for us to hand out. We will pull a large package with lights and Catherine will be co-pilot in the front seat of the truck. There will be some hay for people to sit on in the truck but we also need walkers to hand out candy and information about Civitan. Great idea to bring your children, grandchildren and friends to walk with us. Our granddaughters will be riding in the bed of the truck and there will be room for others that would like to ride. Our next meeting will be December 4th at 6:00 at Sanctuary Spirits and Distillery. We will be making decisions about where we will hold our meetings, election of officers (we have a volunteer to be President) Yipee!! and what service projects the club would like to consider. This is the time to ask people to join us as our goal is to charter this club prior to the end of December!
