RIBBON CUTTING - Nov. 6 at 12pm

The Thrifty Diva, owned and operated by Jody Henry, will open next week at 204 S. Bridge Street in downtown Grand Ledge. The women's consignment store will celebrate with a Grand Opening on Friday, Nov. 6 with a Ribbon Cutting from the Chamber at 12 noon.

Store hours will be:

10am-6pm Monday through Friday and 10am-4pm on Saturday.
517-622-4242 Please stop in to welcome them to the area!

ARTISANS SHOWCASE - Nov. 7

Join us at Ledge Craft Lane, 120 S. Bridge St., Grand Ledge, to discover the talents of Artisans at work. On Saturday, November 7, we will be featuring select demonstrations of our talented artisans. The event will take place from Noon to 4 pm. See live demos and/or explanations of how they create their crafts and the time it involves to create each unique item for you. For more information call (517) 627-9843 Wed- Fri 10:00 am-5:00 pm.

The demos will include Julie BeVier, presenting the Art & History of Soap Making by Hand. Celeste Bennett, author of the Yarn Genie Mystery Series, will demonstrate the quick crochet techniques used to make her original design teddy bear Christmas ornament. Off loom beading will be demonstrated by Mary Kyle using a bead embroidery peyote stitch technique to make her lovely jewelry. Please come and enjoy the demos, ask us questions and shop for gifts or just for yourself. See more at <http://www.ledgecraftlane.com/artisans-showcase.html>

COMMUNITY OUTREACH HIGHLIGHTS
November 2015

The 2015 Healthy! Capital Counties Community Health Profile & Health Needs Assessment is now available!
This report measures Clinton, Eaton, and Ingham counties in multiple areas that affect health, including Opportunity Measures; Social, Economic, and Environmental Factors; Behaviors, Stress, and Physical Condition; and Health Outcomes. Findings from this report will be used by local health departments and hospital systems in the tri-county area to prioritize health issues to be addressed in the next few years. View the full assessment, along with a summary of important findings from the report, online at <http://www.healthycapitalcounties.org/2015-report.html>.

Building Bridges for Health
Congratulations to the Village of Middleville for their recent adoption of a Complete Streets resolution! Proactive Village leaders and community members diligently educated the community about Complete Streets and approved a Complete Streets Resolution. For information about Complete Streets, visit <http://bit.ly/1qj3S2c>.

Are You Prepared? Great American Smokeout is November 19th! The American Cancer Society encourages smokers to use this date to make a plan to quit, or to plan in advance and quit smoking that day. By doing so, smokers will be taking an important step towards a healthier life – one that can lead to reducing cancer risk. For tobacco cessation resources, visit <http://bit.ly/1MvYOzt>

Are You Drinking Safe Water? Will Your Septic System Stand the Test of Time? For more information about these Well Water and Septic System questions and more, check out BEDHD's new Well and Septic Maintenance fact sheets at <http://bit.ly/1MhizBL>

Is Your Family Prepared for Flu Season? Flu is the 8th leading cause of death in the U.S. At highest risk are children under five years of age, pregnant women, people with chronic conditions, and older adults. At the Health Department in Charlotte and Hastings, flu shots and flu-mist are available for children ages 6 months – 18 years of age. Call for an appointment 517-541-2630 or 269-945-9516.
